

Elite Training Habits U18 Stateside #3

One of the players in our squad (pBus) did a bit of research during the covid lockdown about elite players and the manner of their training.

Having set his goals for the coming year, our squad player decided to reach out and identify what it is at training that makes the elite performers in our sport so great.

He reached out to numerous State, National and International players (23 in fact) to pick their brains and absorb as much information to adapt into his training regime to reach his goal.

The questions asked each player of interest was as follows:

- What have you found to be your most effective / successful training regime?*
- How do you plan each training session?*
- How do you record each training session? (stats keeping)*
- What drill do you think is the best for a short training session?*
- What do you deem to be the most important skill in bowls?*
- What mental skills do you think are important?*
- What do you think has been the secret behind your successful career in bowls?*
- If you could share one thing that you wish you had known when starting bowls, what would it be?*
- What do you think it takes to become the best?*
- How did you overcome your biggest challenges to achieve what you have achieved?*
- If you were trying to teach someone what it takes to become the best, what would you tell them to 'fast track' their progress?*

Their responses are paraphrased into digestible chunks that can easily be tried in our routine to find the perfect balance that suits any one of us best.

Below is the response from a player selected for today's website column with names deleted for privacy: Including a brief rundown of the player, representation and their winning achievements.

#3 National, U18 state side

- Training with the best players possible and playing in lots of events with them.
- Get a coach and practice weaknesses with them (shots that don't work during games).
- Practice your routines for game day.
- Find what attitude you play your best in and strive for that attitude each time you play.
- Surround yourself with the right people. Team success makes more people happy than singles success.
- Don't get too ahead of yourself (soak it up and enjoy).
- Have the X factor where you can just play the impossible shot when needed.
- Surround yourself with the people you want to become.

This website will provide all twenty three (23) player responses over the year 2023 in the WHAT'S NEW menu.

That is a lot of interviews and a wealth of information to all we bowlers, and coaches, and as good an insight as to how you the bowler can adjust your thinking, your approach to markedly improve your game based on this knowledge.
