Tools For Club Players

Members of club top side

Theme: Planning for the players to do their best as club competitors

Are you interested in YOUR bowls success in our team???

A way of determining that as a coach or selector is for the bowler to react to the following content.

What do I understand to be the duties / responsibilities here as a premier player?

What are my goals as a bowler?

What are our premier team goals?

What is an acceptable level of achievement as a team for me to be satisfied?

How do I intend to appraise myself to determine necessary level of improvement?

Now, respond with a YES or NO to these 10 statements.

- I want to be in the premier side of the club.
- I am prepared to comply with required structured training to be in the side.
- I have set / written my goals for skills and performance.
- I have an annual bowls plan for training and events.
- I accept the role of head coach who plans / supervises our training.
- I agree to performance debrief sessions with the rink team after each game.
- I agree to performance debriefs (with head coach) at training sessions.
- I shall devise game plans for every event (may need coach guidance).
- I know what my strength as a player is.
- I know what my deficiency as a player is.

Questions to assist self-appraisal and team appraisal for you, the bowler.

- What was missing in your development as a bowler this past year?
- What aspect of coaching is important to your development?
- If you answered NO to any of the statements 2-10 above, are you able to explain the reason to the head coach.
- What can the club do (better) to achieve success for the premier team?
