June 2012 (monthly) edition titled '...TEAMWORK

Our sport has more team formats than singles so the imperative should be about us working as a team to win.

A description of TEAM WORK may well be summarised

If you and others who comprise the team can apply some or all of these letters and their intent you go a long way to succeeding, surprisingly.

And, the principle of a team does not change whether we compete at local club level or at international championships.
